About us.

MOSAICS TORRA
BARCELONA

The art and encaustic cement tiles, made to order. At Mosaics Torra, we preserve the essence of Mediterranean craftsmanship and blend it with contemporary creativity to bring unique surfaces to life. Each piece is a fusion of tradition, design, and carefully selected raw materials.

We handcraft bespoke encaustic cement tiles for projects that seek authenticity, timeless beauty, and long-lasting quality. We work closely with architects, interior designers, and private clients around the world, adapting to each vision with care and precision.

Hotel Seventy

Barcelona

For Hotel Seventy Barcelona, located in the heart of the Eixample district, we produced bespoke cement tiles for both indoor and outdoor areas. The interior tiles were custom-designed to match the hotel's Mediterranean and contemporary aesthetic. For the outdoor spaces, including the patio and rooftop terrace, we applied our Torrastone anti-slip finish to ensure durability and safety without compromising style. This project reflects our ability to deliver tailored, high-performance surfaces for premium hospitality environments.

Hotel Villa Maria Cristina

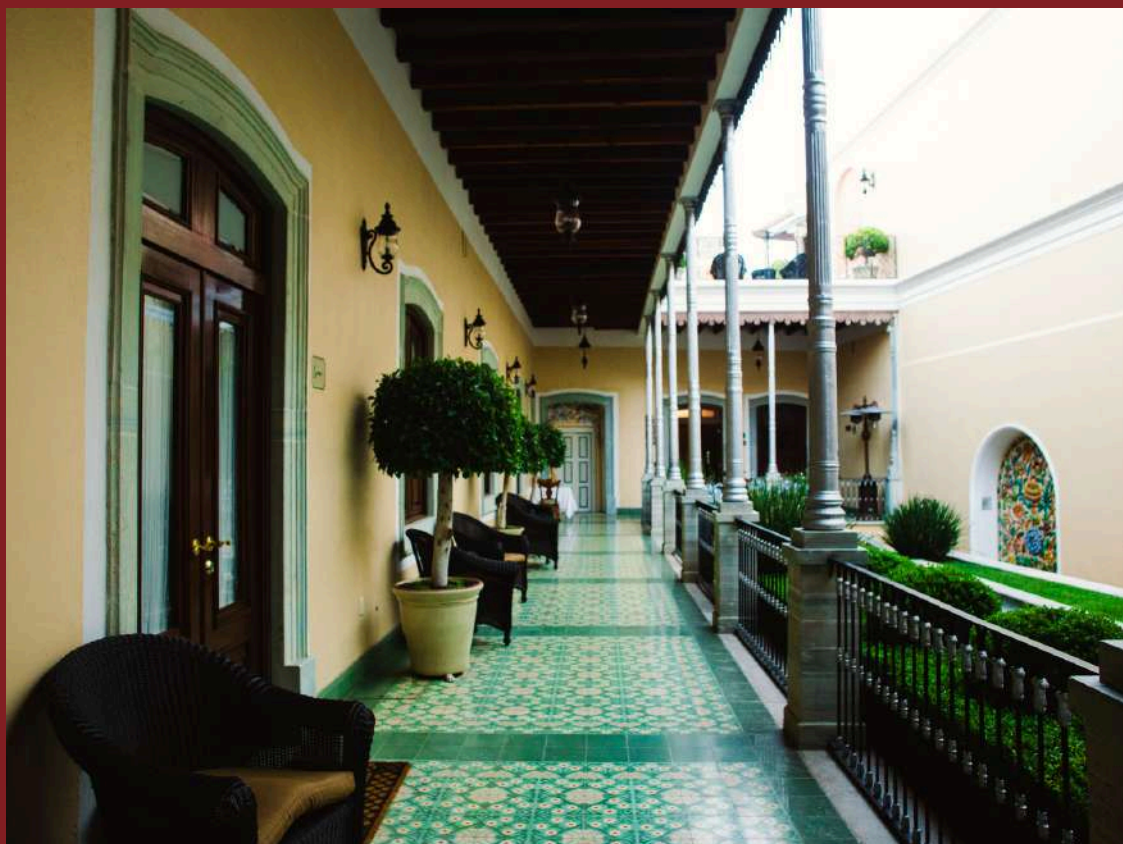

México

Hotel Villa María Cristina is a luxury boutique hotel set in a 19th-century mansion in the historic city of Guanajuato, known for its colonial architecture and artistic heritage. The project combined restoration and new construction to expand and enhance the hotel's offering while preserving its unique character.

Mosaics Torra was reproduced the original cement tile flooring across the hotel's indoor and outdoor spaces—terraces, corridors, and common areas—respecting the building's style. In parallel, we developed new custom-designed cement tiles, carefully tailored to blend with the historic aesthetics while bringing fresh identity to the newly built areas. The result is a seamless integration of heritage and contemporary design through craftsmanship and material continuity.

Hotel Serras

Barcelona

Tiles from our Barcelona Collection for indoor spaces including guest rooms and suites. Designer Eva Martínez incorporated our geometric, Modernist-inspired tiles—used as headboards and feature panels—to echo the city’s industrial heritage and mosaic traditions , custom variants inspired by the collection were developed to suit unique areas and layouts within the hotel. This project highlights how modular yet bespoke tile design can reinforce both style and historical context in high-end urban interiors.

Eurostars Sitges

Sitges

At Eurostars Sitges, one of Spain's most luxurious 5-star properties overlooking the Mediterranean, we manufactured and supplied a patterned terrazzo tile design for indoor communal areas and suites. Sourced from our Concret Diamond Collection, the tiles bring geometric elegance and refined texture, perfectly matching the hotel's upscale, contemporary style.

This collaboration underscores our ability to deliver premium, design-forward surfaces for elite hospitality environments

Hotel Font de la Canya

Vilafranca del Penedès

Located within the iconic Park Güell, the pink house known today as the Casa Museu Gaudí was once the residence of Antoni Gaudí himself, and now serves as a museum dedicated to his life and work. Surrounded by Gaudí's architectural vision, this house is an essential part of Barcelona's modernist heritage.

As part of a careful restoration project, Mosaics Torra reproduced all the original mosaic tile carpets throughout the interior rooms, bringing back the authentic look and feel of the hydraulic cement flooring that once defined the space. Every detail was faithfully recreated to reflect the textures, colors, and patterns that Gaudí himself would have lived with — preserving the spirit of the house with precision and respect.

B&B Bell i Plançó

Moià

Bell Plançó B&B blends quiet rural charm with refined design in the heart of Moià. For this project, we supplied custom cement tiles in solid, earthy tones that subtly integrate into the building's historic interiors.

Installed across shared spaces, the tiles contribute to the warm, understated atmosphere that defines the house—preserving its identity while enhancing comfort and continuity throughout.

Hotel Can Alemany

Igualada

For Can Alemany, nestled in Santa Margarida de Montbui's restored Catalan farmhouse, we crafted custom solid-color tiles to form artisanal mosaics in indoor common areas and guest apartments. These bespoke mosaics, designed in earthy tones, complement the property's bioclimatic interior and historic charm, echoing the rustic elegance of olive-grove surroundings.

This project underscores our ability to transform simple solid-color tiles into expressive, site-specific mosaics that align seamlessly with Can Alemany's sustainable, rural-architecture narrative.

Hotel Miramar

Barcelona

For the prestigious Hotel Miramar Barcelona, a 5-star property overlooking the sea from Montjuïc, we supplied bespoke tiles for the Spa Terracalma wellness area, operated in partnership with L'Occitane.

The tiles were selected to complement the spa's calm, Mediterranean-inspired design, providing a refined and durable surface for a luxury wellness experience.
